

JETRide Terms and Conditions

These terms and conditions are to ensure that you fully understand the risks associated with taking part in JETRide (henceforth referred to as the 'Event'). They are designed for your safety and the safety of other participants. Please read carefully to avoid problems later.

Safety

1. JETRide (the 'Event') is not a race and all riders must treat it as a non-competitive event.
2. The Event, is a cycle ride organised by the Jon Egging Trust (the 'Charity') for the personal satisfaction of the individual cyclist named on the entry form (the 'Cyclist') who, after successfully completing the route will be able to access his/her finishing time via a website. The Event cannot be held responsible for any anomalies or any technical malfunctions.
3. The Cyclist acknowledges that throughout the Event the Cyclist is on a private excursion on the public highway and enters the Event entirely at their own risk. The Cyclist is responsible for their actions at all times. The Charity accepts no responsibility or liability whatsoever for any accident, injury, damage or liability to any third party incurred by the Cyclist during, or as a result of their participation in the Event.
4. Whilst the Charity takes every care with the staging of the Event, you accept that you must make all reasonable precautions for the safeguarding of your person and of your property during your participation in the Event. You further acknowledge that personal accident and personal items insurance is your responsibility. The Charity does not and has no responsibility for verifying that each Cyclist has such insurance cover in place.
5. You will provide the Jon Egging Trust with reports regarding all accidents, incidents, safeguarding issues and first aid in which you are involved.
6. All participants must be aged 16 or over on the date of the Event. All Participants aged 16-17 years old must have a signed parental consent form and must be accompanied by an adult.
7. It is the Cyclist's personal responsibility to follow the route indicated by the Event Charity.
8. Cyclists with food allergies or intolerances must make their own decision as to whether any food or drink dispensed at the HQ and feed stations is safe for them to consume. The Charity cannot accept any responsibility for any problems that arise due to any food or drink consumed on the ride.
9. We accept no responsibility for cycles, clothing or equipment stolen or left unattended at the Event HQ, feed stations or its environs.
10. No Cyclist should leave their personal rubbish or clothing on any third-party property, especially on the walls of any local properties. Failure to comply with this may result in the event being cancelled and the Cyclist(s) in question being banned from riding in this or any other future event.
11. Any participant with a medical condition or unsure of their physical ability to take part in the Event is advised to take medical advice from a general practitioner prior to the Event.
12. The Cyclist must wear a hard-shelled cycling specific helmet that complies with current safety standards. This is mandatory and the Charity reserves the right to refuse entry or withdraw riders who do not comply.

13. The Cyclist should wear appropriate clothing and be suitably equipped to counter possible adverse weather conditions. Gloves are essential in cold conditions to ensure safe braking and steering. Failure to be clothed adequately could mean you will not be allowed to start.
14. The Cyclist must be self-sufficient and be physically and mentally capable of riding the event. Furthermore, the Cyclist must be competent and properly equipped to deal with the challenges of the Event and any mechanical failures and punctures. The Charity strongly recommends the carrying of a mobile phone during the event including Event Emergency Contact details.
15. The Cyclist agrees that the purpose of the marshals is only to indicate direction and the Cyclist must decide personally whether any movement is safe. Marshals have no legal right to, and cannot stop traffic and it is therefore the Cyclist(s) responsibility to navigate safe passage at all crossings and junctions.
16. No Cyclist shall park in an inconsiderate manner, extra parking marshals will be deployed to control parking on the roads in the vicinity of the Event HQ to ensure that disruption and inconvenience is kept to an absolute minimum. Any Cyclist who ignores the marshals' instructions regarding parking will be disqualified and not allowed to start the event. Please car share where possible.
17. No personal support cars for riders will be permitted, without advanced permission from the Charity.
18. Each Cyclist will be fully responsible for any fees or costs incurred or arising from an accident either involving or caused by the Cyclist. This includes, but is not exclusive to, fees from Police, Air Ambulance, Fire and Rescue and the Ambulance service. If the situation arises that you are not capable of making the decision to call the emergency services, the Cyclist agrees that a member of the Event Charity or member of the public may call for them. In this situation, the Cyclist accepts the costs and consequences of such actions.
19. The Cyclist accepts that should his/her bike be transferred in any vehicle during the event, such as the sweep vehicle, it is placed and transferred in the vehicle at his/her own risk; The Event is not liable for any damage caused during this process.

Fees and Sponsorships

1. This Event is to raise funds exclusively for the Jon Egging Trust.
2. To register for the Event, you agree to pay a non-refundable Registration Fee to the Jon Egging Trust. The Jon Egging Trust will notify the amount of the Registration Fee to you in advance.
3. Any money raised through sponsorship money is to be donated exclusively to the Jon Egging Trust and no other charity. When asking for donations, you must make clear to any donor that the donation will be used to support the work of the Jon Egging Trust. As a result, any donation will not be refundable, even if you do not take part in or complete the Event.
